Declaration and authorisation to obtain and use information

I, the person applying for this Accuro Health Insurance policy confirm that I:

1. Agree that this application and any other information obtained/provided about persons to be included on my plan forms the basis of the contract.
2. Declare that the information I have given is correct and complete and that no material fact has been omitted. I undertake to advise Accuro Health Insurance of any health condition or event that may affect any of the people named in this application or any relevant information that may affect the policy between the date I sign this application and the date the policy commences with Accuro Health Insurance.
3. Am legally responsible for the named children and declare that any information supplied in this application, whether written by me or not, is true and accurate.
4. Have read and understand this declaration and authorisation and its applicability to the Privacy Act 1993 and Health Information Privacy Code 1994 (see below for further information).
5. Understand the nature of the plan(s) chosen and believe they meet my/our requirements.
6. Understand that, upon issuance of the membership certificate, I have fourteen (14) days to cancel my/our plan(s) ('14-day free-look' period) and that, subject to no claims having been made, the person who paid the premium will receive a full refund.
7. Understand that, if the application is approved, cover will start from the date stated on the membership certificate issued by Accuro Health Insurance.
8. For the purpose of assessing this application and any future claims, authorise Accuro Health Insurance to request and obtain information and records about named children and any other people in this application. I authorise the following people to give you any such information and records:
   - Any doctor, medical specialist, health agency, hospital, the Accident Compensation Corporation or other relevant person, including any other insurance held in respect to a named child.

Privacy Act 1993 and Health Information Privacy Code 1994

Each person applying for this Accuro Health Insurance plan should please note the following:

1. This proposal collects personal information about you and each other person named in this plan in connection with the insurance that is sought.
2. The intended recipient of that personal information is Accuro Health Insurance.
3. You have the right to access and request corrections subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1993. This information will be held at our head office.
4. While Accuro Health Insurance intends to treat this information as confidential, there are some situations where we may need to disclose your personal information to a third party.
5. By signing this declaration, you authorise the disclosure of the personal information of each person named in this plan (including any children) to third parties and any other person named in the plan:
   a) for statistical purposes (where not individually identified)
   b) for evaluation and assessment of claims under the policy that result from this application
   c) for providing on-going client service and information
   d) for any other matter related to the policy.
6. By signing this declaration, you also authorise Accuro Health Insurance or any agency authorised by Accuro Health Insurance to give and obtain any personal information including any child's medical records from other insurers and from medical practitioners. You agree this may include information relating to any other insurance applied for or obtained or claims previously made by you.

Important information

Conditions of this authority to accept direct debit

1) The Initiator:

a) Undertakes to give notice of the commencement date, frequency and net amount at least 10 calendar days before the first Direct Debit is drawn (but not more than 2 calendar months). This notice will be provided in writing (including by electronic means and SMS where I/we have provided prior written consent (including by electronic means including SMS) to communicate electronically).

Where the Direct Debit system is used for the collection of payments which are regular as to frequency, but variable as to amount, the Initiator undertakes to provide the Customer with a schedule detailing each payment amount and each payment date.

In the event of any subsequent change to the frequency or amount of the Direct Debit, the Initiator has agreed to give advance notice of at least 30 days before the change comes into effect. This notice must be provided in writing (including by electronic means and SMS where I/we have provided prior written consent (including by electronic means including SMS) to communicate electronically).

b) May, upon the relationship which gave rise to this Authority being terminated, give notice to the Bank that no further Direct Debits are to be initiated under the Authority. Upon receipt of such notice the Bank may terminate this Authority as to future payments by notice in writing to me/us.

c) May, upon receiving written notice (dated after the date of this Authority) from a bank to which I/we have transferred my/our account, initiate Direct Debits in reliance of that written notice and this Authority from the account identified in the written notice.

2) The Customer may:

a) At any time, terminate this Authority as to future payments by giving notice of termination to the Bank and to the Initiator by the means agreed by me/us, the Bank and the Initiator.

b) Stop payment of any Direct Debit to be initiated under this Authority by the Initiator by giving written notice to the Bank prior to the Direct Debit being paid by the Bank.

c) Where a variation to the amount agreed between the Initiator and the Customer from time to time to be direct debited has been made without notice being given in terms of clause 1(a) above, request the Bank to reverse or alter any such Direct Debit initiated by the Initiator by debiting the amount of the reversal of alteration of Direct Debit back to the Initiator through the Initiator's Bank, PROVIDED such request is made not more than 120 days from the date when the Direct Debit was debited to my/our account.

3) The Customer acknowledges that:

a) This Authority will remain in full force and effect in respect of all Direct Debits passed to my/our account in good faith notwithstanding my/our death, bankruptcy or other revocation of this Authority until actual notice of such event is received by the Bank.

b) In any event this Authority is subject to any arrangement now or hereafter existing between me/us and the Bank in relation to my/our account.

c) Any dispute as to the correctness or validity of an amount debited to my/our account shall not be the concern of the Bank except in so far as the Direct Debit has not been paid in accordance with this Authority. Any other dispute lies between me/us and the Initiator.

d) Where the Bank has used reasonable care and skill in acting in accordance with this Authority, the Bank accepts no responsibility or liability in respect of:

- The accuracy of information about Direct Debits on Bank statements; and
- Any variations between notices given by the Initiator and the amounts of Direct Debit.

e) The Bank is not responsible for, or under any liability in respect of the Initiator's failure to give notice in accordance with 1(a), nor for the non-receipt, or late receipt of notice by me/us for any reason whatsoever. In any such situation the dispute lies between me/us and the Initiator.

f) Notice given by the Initiator in terms of clause 1(a) to the debtor responsible for the payment shall be effective. Any communication necessary because the debtor responsible for payment is a person other than me/us is a matter between me/us and the debtor concerned.

4) The Bank may;

a) In its absolute discretion conclusively determine the order of priority of payment by it of any monies pursuant to this or any other Authority, cheque or draft properly signed by me/us and given to or drawn on the Bank.

b) At any time terminate this Authority as to future payments by notice in writing to me/us.

c) Charge its current fees for this service in force from time-to-time
